To
The Government of Madras,
Public (Resettlement) Deptt.

Sir,

Sub: TRADE TESTING PANEL - Co-option of Experts to.

The Ministry of Labour, Government of India have been pleased to approve the policy of co-opting Technical experts for conducting Trade Tests of the trainees undergoing training in the various training centres in such trades forming a panel. A copy of para VIII of Training Circular No. 7 dated 24-6-1947 issued by the Ministry of Labour is enclosed. The trade Testing Panel attached to the Regional Directorate, Madras, have made the following recommendations in respect of certain officers who can be co-opted as and when need for such co-option arises, with the prior approval of the Regional Director.

1. A suitable officer recommended by the Principal Government Textile Institute.
2. A suitable officer recommended by the Principal School of Arts and Crafts, Madras.
3. District Agricultural Officers of the respective Districts.

2. I therefore request you to spare the services of the Officers concerned to be utilised towards the trade Testing under the following conditions-

(i) As detailed in sub-paras 2 and 3 of para VIII of the Training Circular No. 7 dated 24-6-1947 of Government of India,

(ii) The co-opted members will have to visit the training Centres notified by the Chairman, T.T. Panel and conduct tests for the ex-servicemen trainees who have completed the prescribed period of training according to syllabus.

(iii) The programme of tests will be arranged by the Chairman, T.T. Panel in consultation with the co-opted members, without interference to their normal work.

3. A list of vocational and Agricultural trades and also the places at which these officers would be required to conduct trade Tests are enclosed herewith for information.

4. I request the favour of very early orders.

VIII. TRADE TESTING PANELS - CO-OPTION OF EXPERTS TO: The Technical Training Scheme, the Vocational Training Scheme and the Scheme for the Rehabilitation and Resettlement of the war-disabled are catering for a large number of trades and occupations and it is not possible for an individual trade testing officer to have a detailed knowledge of all the trades. It has, therefore, been decided to co-opt experts to Trade Testing Panels to assist Chairmen in trade testing. The following instructions will govern the co-option, etc., of experts to Trade Testing Panels:

1. The Regional Directors of Resettlement and Employment are authorised to co-opt to Trade Testing Panels suitable experts generally drawn from reputable firms or industries who should have knowledge of a number of industries trades or groups of trades or occupations. The names, qualifications, etc., of the persons so co-opted should be reported to this Directorate General. The number of experts to be co-opted to a panel will be determined by the Regional Director of Resettlement and Employment concerned on the basis of local requirements.
2. The co-opted members of the Panels may be paid remuneration at the rate of Rs.2 per trainee trade tested, if required. They will be treated as 1st or 2nd grade officers for purposes of travelling allowance according to their status which will be determined by the Regional Directors.
3. The Regional Director of Resettlement and Employment will be the controlling Authority for the purposes of payment of remuneration and travelling allowance to the co-opted members. The bills will be counter-signed by the Chairman of the Trade Testing Panel concerned. In order to keep down expenses on travelling, the programmes of trade tests should be so planned as to enable the largest number of trainees to be trade tested on any occasion.
